1. PURPOSE STATEMENT

Nunkuwarrin Yunti aims to promote and deliver improvement in the health and wellbeing of all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people in the greater metropolitan area of Adelaide and to advance their social, cultural and economic status. The Organisation places a strong focus on a client centred approach to the delivery of services and a collaborative working culture to achieve the best possible outcomes for our clients.

Primary Care Services provides comprehensive primary health care to the Aboriginal community. The multi-disciplinary team consists of Aboriginal Health Workers and Practitioners, a Clinical Services Officer, Enrolled and Registered Nurses, and General Practitioners and Registrars. Services are augmented by a range of visiting medical specialists and allied health professionals. The PCS team liaises and works closely with the New Directions Mothers and Babies program, the Social and Emotional Wellbeing program and the Community Health Promotion and Education program to ensure a high standard of integrated and coordinated client care.

Working under the limited direction and supervision of the Clinical Services Coordinator (RN3), the Aboriginal Health Practitioner is required to:

- Work collaboratively with all members of Primary Care Services and other Health Services teams to provide best practice client care
- Work collaboratively to ensure the delivery of high quality and culturally appropriate client care and contribute to the smooth running of the clinic
- Contribute to PCS staff cultural understanding (verbal and written as required)
- Have a sound knowledge of health screening and care planning protocols
- Liaise with and broker services between clients and internal and external stakeholders as necessary
- Provide health education and services to clients on issues of some complexity, including chronic conditions self-management
- Perform tasks of a sensitive nature including the provision of health information requiring the exercise of judgement, initiative and confidentiality.
- Maintain a positive and harmonious working relationship and actively contribute to organisational activities and goals
- Participate in personal and professional development activities
- Ensure compliance with a range of administrative practices which support Primary Care Services and Nunkuwarrin Yunti as an Organisation, including accreditation
